

Praise for Margaret Valentine

Artist: Margaret Valentine | Songwriter and Singer

"As founder of Northern Lights, upstate New York's premier Concert venue, I had the privilege to know and work with Margaret Valentine for over 15 years. While opening up for national acts, Margaret has always been the utmost professional and crowd pleaser. Whether as an opening act or headliner, she has entertained thousands of enthusiastic fans. It has truly been my pleasure to work with such a talented musician and songwriter. Margaret's dedication to her craft is unparalleled in the business."

"She's spectacular! She's got a serious Joni vibe going But it's more in the Shawn Colvin song structure space I really dig her sound; really wild feel, good songs, and killer voice."

"Saratoga Springs singer-songwriter Margaret Valentine's opening set was pure pleasure. From the forceful 'Contradiction' to an emotional run through 'Romeo and Juliet,' Valentine's enticing, comfortable stage presence, along with her passionate and animated delivery, easily connected with the crowd."
